Town seeks to fill five positions on Estes Park Board of Appeals

The deadline has been extended as the Town of Estes Park seeks to fill five volunteer board positions on the Estes Park Board of Appeals. Consisting of design professionals and contractors, the Board of Appeals hears and decides appeals of decisions made by the Chief Building Official. Completed applications must be received by March 4, 2013. Applications are available at Town Hall, 170 MacGregor Avenue, in the west foyer (Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.) and at www.estes.org/jobs. Mail applications and a cover letter specifying interest to: Town of Estes Park Human Resources, P.O. Box 1200, Estes Park, CO 80517 or fax them to 970-577-4770. By choice, the Town of Estes Park is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

The Estes Park Board of Appeals meets as needed in order to advise the Town Board on matters relating to construction codes, and to facilitate amendments and adoption of construction codes as directed by the Town Board. The board will consist of registered design professionals or contractors, each with experience in either the architectural, structural, electrical, mechanical/plumbing or fire protection engineering fields. Applicants must reside in the Estes Valley for at least one year prior to Jan. 1, 2013 and continue to reside there during the board term.
